

CONSTRUCTION SUPERINTENDENT

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ensure a safe and effective Permit to Work system is in place and maintained for all Construction activities.
- Supervise and support day-to-day Construction activities / personnel in the safe and structured delivery of the work scope and processes, ensuring all applicable site / Project safety procedures are fully and properly implemented.
- Constantly strive to obtain maximum productivity and economical use of labour and equipment in order to keep costs within budget.
- Assist in the development, issue and updating of all applicable Construction strategies, procedures / working practices and system / sub-system boundary P&ID's required for the delivery of the Construction process - ensure compliance with all Project standards, specifications and procedures.
- Liaise with the Project Engineering office to ensure P&ID's and other drawings are produced in line with Construction requirements.
- Co-ordinate the mobilisation and de-mobilisation of Construction resources to meet schedule requirements. This will include the necessary tooling and temporary requirements which are to be managed and controlled in a cost-effective manner.
- Ensure, before any work commences, that all items of material, equipment, scaffolding etc required are
 - on board the barge and other support vessels assigned to the vessel spread.
- Overall responsible person in charge of PLB and other support vessels assigned to PLB spread.
- Control marine movements in relation to site, and in particular, ensure all vessels are moored in accordance with pre-approved procedures.
- Responsible for ensuring the stability of the PLB is within the limits stated in its valid load line certificate and that all other vessels are operated within their own capabilities

QUALIFICATION AND EXPERIENCE

- 25 years' experience in offshore construction industry
- Minimum of 10 years' experience as Barge Superintendent.