

OFFSHORE CONSTRUCTION MANAGER

RESPONSIBILITIES

- To verify that the drawings and specifications provide adequate instructions for the work and advise the Project Construction Manager and/or Project Manager of any deficiencies or clarifications needed.
- To review, in co-operation with the Project Construction Manager and/or Project Manager, and agree the overall site programme for his area of responsibility including Sub-contractors' programmes. To identify any problem areas in the programmes, discuss with the Project Construction Manager and/or Project Manager and agree a solution.
- To ensure, before any work commences, that all items of material, equipment, scaffolding and tools required are available to avoid abortive and unproductive use of labour.
- To ensure, before any variation work is carried out by a sub-contractor that an authorised instruction is given by the Project Construction Manager and/or Project Manager.
- To assist in the authorising or refuting of any claims by the Sub-contractor of delays, waiting time or abortive work.
- To ensure that all work is to the required standard and that all drawings, specifications, inspections and certifications are strictly adhered to.
- To ensure that Construction and the Sub-contractors programmes are produced and monitored in accordance
- To co-ordinate and report on a daily, weekly and monthly basis on all progress matters and problem areas.
- To constantly strive to obtain maximum productivity and economical use of labour and equipment in order to keep costs within budget.
- To ensure that Company systems for material identification and stores requisitioning are adhered to by all those under his control.
- To be responsible for the Health and Safety of all personnel working in the area or areas within the site complex.
- Overall responsible person in charge of Work Barge and other support vessels assigned to Work Barge spread

QUALIFICATION AND EXPERIENCE

- Degree in Engineering (Mechanical/Civil/Electrical)
- Must possess minimum of 20 years' relevant experience construction experience in offshore structures and/or submarine pipeline installation projects.
- 10 years' experience as Offshore Construction Manager in Brownfield Repairs and Modification
- BOSIET / Approved Offshore Medical – essential for an offshore position.
- MIST or CCNSG / Safety Passport.
- Knowledge of the Integrated Delivery Module systems and Construction Management procedures
- APM Level D qualification, or above.
- Management NVQ level 4 / 5.